Assignment:

Gramex administers all our public performance rights in terms of published sound recordings in Denmark and the countries with which Gramex has bilateral agreements cf. article 68 of the Copyright Act. The assignment of rights applies to both existing and future rights.

We hereby assign all our rights regarding copying and communication to the public in terms of the mandates that Gramex administers cf. article 2, section 4, no 1 and 66 of the Copyright Act. The assignment includes all existing mandates as listed on www.gramex.dk unless otherwise agreed. The remuneration is distributed to the record companies who in turn are obligated to distribute the performing artists their share of the remuneration in accordance with the underlying recording contracts.

We authorize Gramex to call attention to any violation of above rights and to use all measures of law and of fact necessary to protect these.

We shall contact Gramex if we subsequently would like to change the territorial scope of the rights Gramex administers on our behalf.

Documentation:

We agree to submit to Gramex a discography identifying all recordings we have produced or have legally obtained the rights to and to submit supplementary information as new recordings are added to our repertoire.

At the request of Gramex we agree to produce all documentation necessary for the registering, monitoring, administration and settlement of my rights.

I, the undersigned, who is of age, and is authorized to sign for the record company, hereby declare that I have read the information above (assignment and documentation) and that the company is not represented in the territory of Denmark by a similar organization abroad:
